More News From ASBG:

There are positions open in the ASBG office for the upcoming year. If you are interested in serving as a representative for your fellow students, and to learn how to become more involved in what happens on our campus, then this may be what you need. We welcome everyone interested to fill out an application. So why don't you stop in at the ASBG office in the bottom floor of Patriot near Maxine's.

There will be a Bar-B-Que, Entertainment, Student Body Elections, and everyone will be able to vote for their favorite teacher as, "Teacher of the Year". We hope a good time will be had by all. So please join us in the courtyard. Please mark your calendar, for Friday, April 28, 2000 and join us for an eventful day. The Bar-B-Que cost is only $1 per plate.

The Poet's Corner

This weeks poem is by Charnell Waller

Whispering Voices

Quiet voices whispering words I cannot understand.

Why does this whispering return to haunt me, night after night?

Why only after I go to sleep?

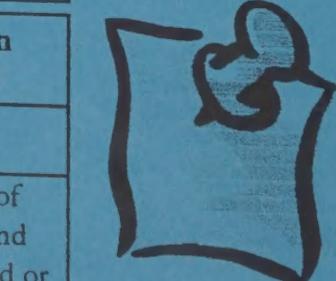

My hand reaches out and touches the now empty pillow at my side, as another tear rolls onto my damp pillow.

My heart feels as empty as the pillow beside me. This is not what I had pictured for this time in my life.

This is not what my dreams had been full of. Now old and alone I wonder.

Will the pillow beside me always be empty? Is this what the whispering voices are trying to tell me?

I may never know.

Important Notices:

The Award ceremony this year is June 1, 2000, from 12 noon till 1 pm in the PAC.

Graduation Ceremony will be at 7:00 PM at the C. C. Fairgrounds

If you have lost anything, please check with the switchboard on the second floor of Patriot or with the ASBG office. Maybe someone has turned it in. Also if you find anything and are un sure of what to do with it, either leave it with the switchboard or the ASBG office. Thank you.

What's Happening On Campus?

NEW THEATER CLASSES: Two new theater courses are being offered Spring Term at Clatsop Community College by theater instructor Karen Bain. For those who enjoy Shakespeare and other great works of literature, there is TA 123, Period Style Acting. This introductory acting course will give students the opportunity to learn about the particular skills required in performing Shakespeare, Moliere (Restoration Comedy), Greek drama and others. The class will be looking at how to handle verse, bearing, cultural customs (curtsies, bows, curses, heroics). For example, the fan in Restoration times had a complex language that could insult, beguile and even arrange a secret encounter outside on the balcony. This class will learn to research and apply the particular world view of these time periods. Actors and history buffs are welcome in this performing class. The class meets Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:30—9:30pm at the PAC. A course in Stage Makeup (TA277) will teach the actors and makeup artist the particular skills involved in designing and applying stage makeup. Students will learn standard, old age, character, and fantasy styles as well as special effects. The course will expand the possibilities of illusion for actors as well as serve an introduction to community members interested in getting involved in theater without performing. Halloween will never be the same after completing this course. The class meets Monday evenings, starting March 27th, from 6:30— 9:30 at the PAC. Call Karen Bain at 338-2445 for more information.

A Touch Of Humor:

High School Vs College:

- In high school, you do homework. In college you study.
- No food is allowed in the hall in high school. In college, food must be provided at an event before students will come.
- In high school, you wear your backpack on one shoulder. In college, on both.
- In college there are no bells or tardy slips.
- In high school you have to live with your parents. In college you live with your friends.
- In college your dad doesn't pay for your dates.
- College men are cuter than high school boys.
- Only nerds E-MAILED in high school. (cool kids hadn't heard of it yet.)

Important Notices:

Beginning Spring Term: The Library will begin collecting overdue fines for late or lost items. The computer system Voyager tracks all loans. There is a "grace period" for most Library material before any overdue fine is assessed. Note that the computer system will not allow you to borrow materials if you owe the Library $5.00 or more in unpaid fines or other charges.

On page two you will find the poets corner, please send in your poetry.

Graduation will be at the C. C. Fairgrounds on Friday, June 9, 2000 at 7:00 pm. Followed by a reception at the Red Lion Inn.

PSU Creates "Anywhere, Anytime" Courses

In addition to the traditional, on-campus courses, Portland State University's School of Extended Studies offers college-level courses by correspondence. There are no admission or residency requirements. Enrolling is easy. Tuition per credit is $75. Start any time and take up to 18 months to complete a course. Students determine deadlines and exam dates. Access to instructors is by phone, email, mail, or fax.

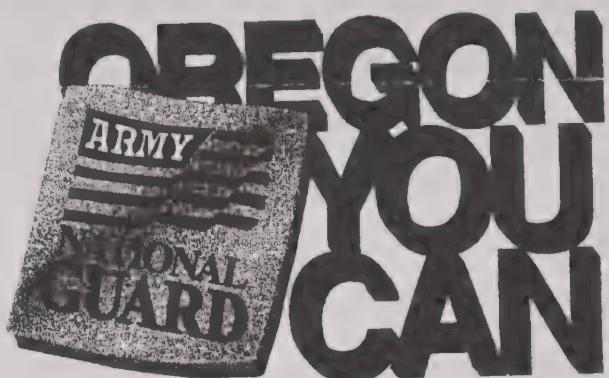

The program, offered through Independent Study, creates opportunities for students who might not otherwise have access to higher education. Kathleen Scotland of Orlando, Florida, enjoys the ability to schedule courses around her busy schedule. She finds, "Taking courses at PSU offers freedom and flexibility. I can start reading the chapters, solve the problems, and place the answers online at a convenient time." Clara Chezem of Eugene, Oregon, agrees. "So many people put college on hold, but now they don't have to. This program allowed me to resume my studies and still take care of my children." Courses are available world-wide. Currently, people from 26 countries and all 50 states are taking Independent Study courses through Portland State University.

Who: PSU School of Extended Studies, Independent Study
What: College-level correspondence courses (Independent Study)

OREGON PACIFIC AHEC

Dear Health and Social Service Provider:

The Oregon Pacific Area Health Education Center (OPAHEC) would like to introduce you to the Clatsop County AIDS Coalition. The AIDS Coalition's mission is to develop, maintain, and advocate for a competent, culturally appropriate, HIV prevention and service delivery system for Clatsop County. The AIDS Coalition offers a variety of programs and services to Clatsop County.

The AIDS Coalition is involved in a model rural HIV/AIDS regional network with several other HIV/AIDS prevention Community Based Organizations (CBOs) within OPAHEC's eight county region, which includes Lincoln, Tillamook, Yamhill, Polk, Clatsop, Columbia, Linn, and Benton Counties. This network is funded through a grant from the Oregon Health Division and the Oregon Community Foundation, with additional funding provided by OPAHEC. The purpose of the network is to establish a regional programs and infrastructure to support the development of the CBO that provide HIV/AIDS prevention and outreach services to high-risk populations.

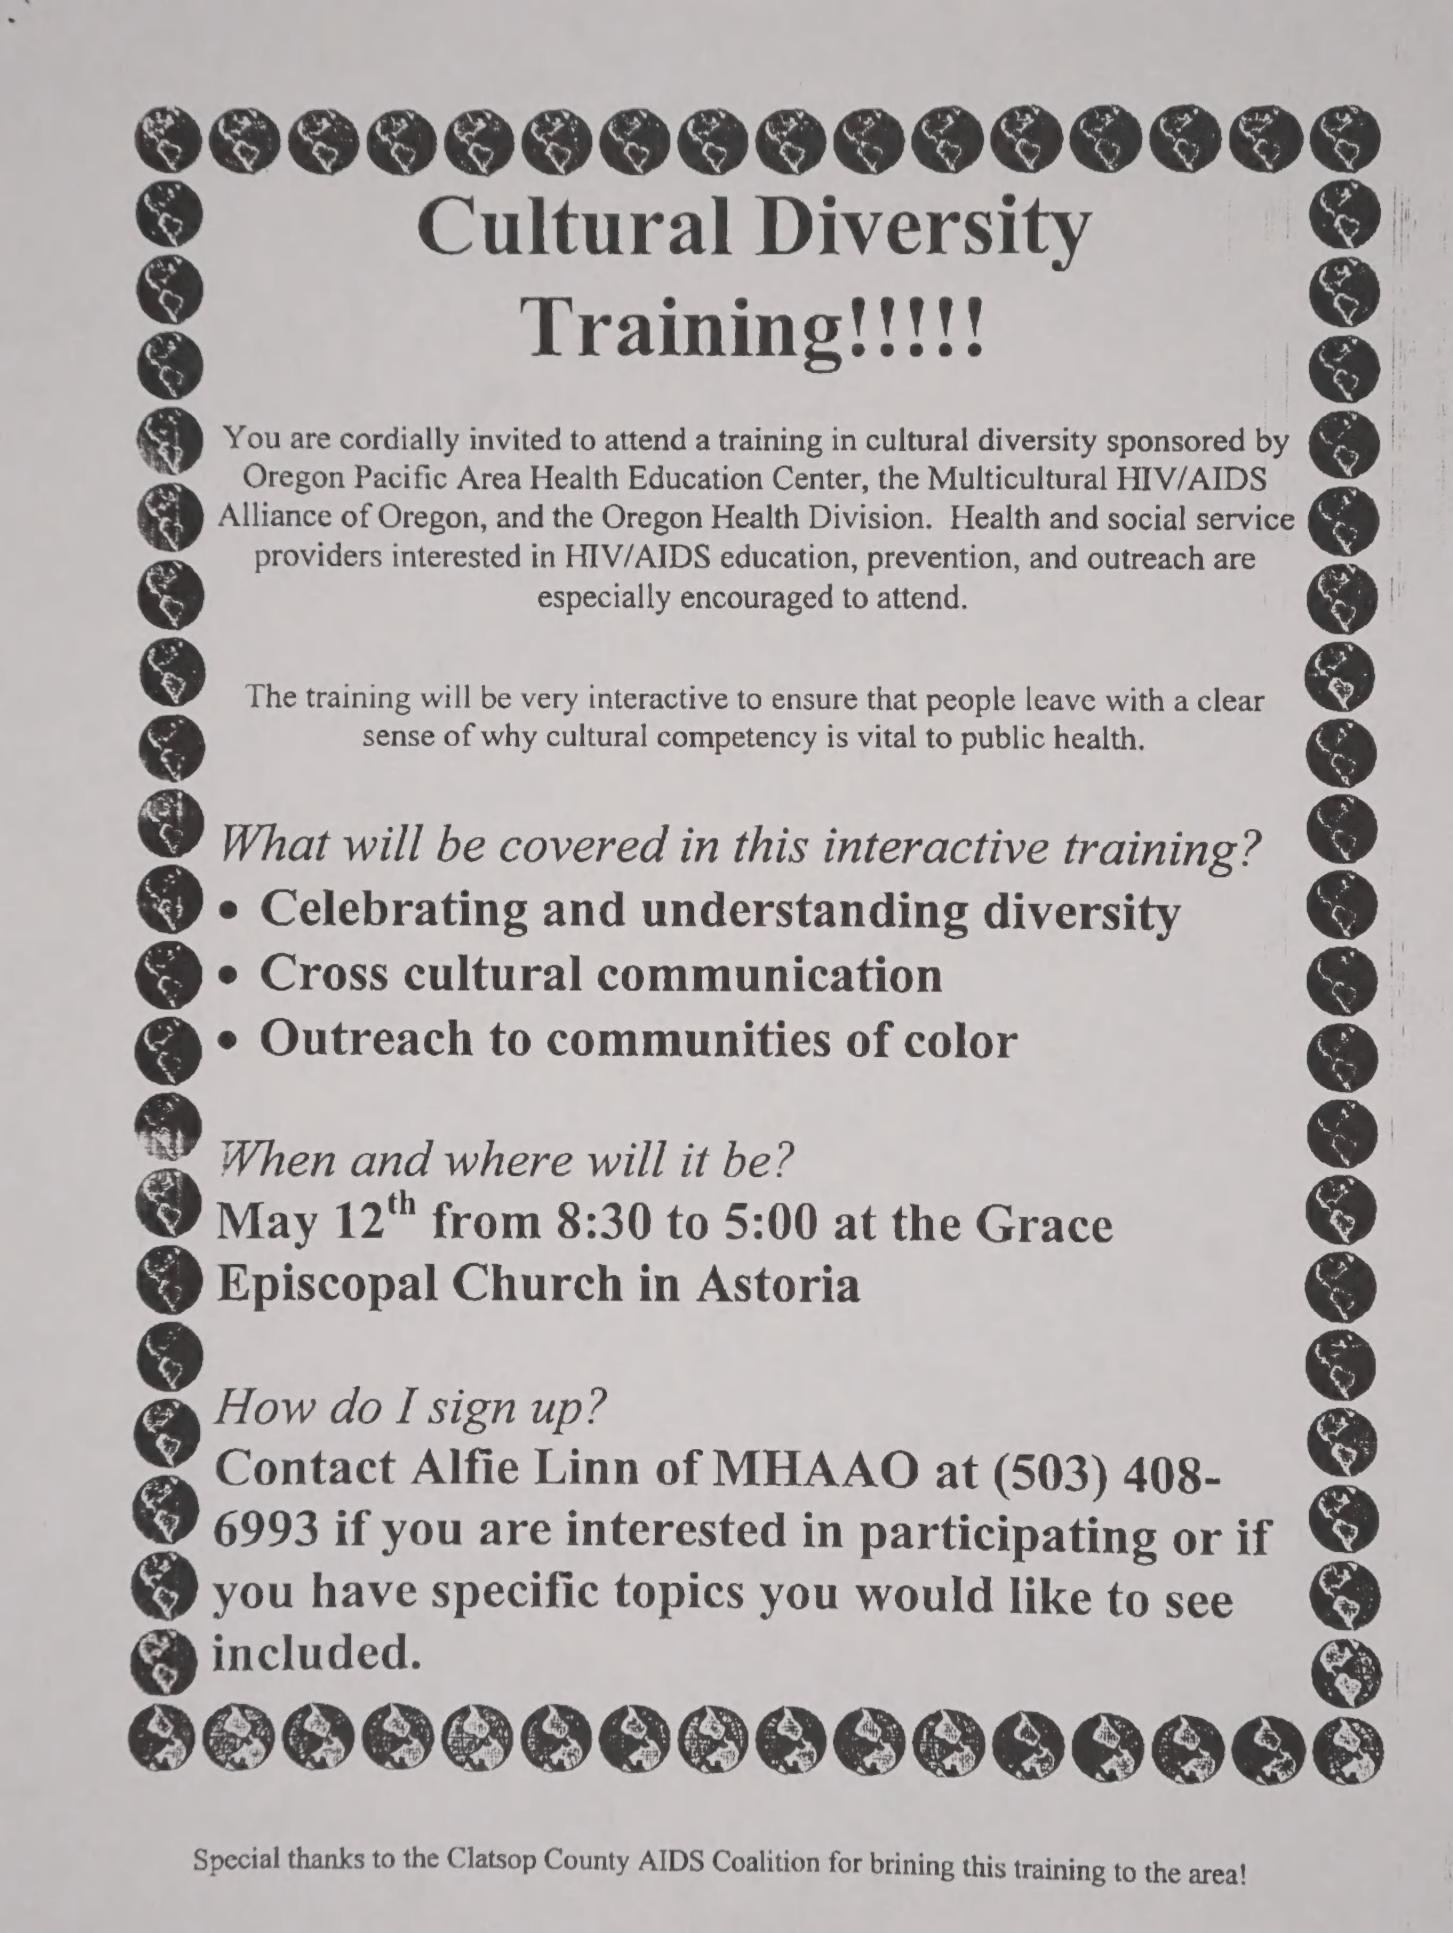

Tom Wynn, the Executive Director of the AIDS Coalition, is interested in talking with you about the services the AIDS Coalition provides in Clatsop County, which includes making speakers available to community organizations and promoting knowledge about the disease. If you are not familiar with the AIDS Coalition, we encourage you to contact Tom at (503) 366-2839. If you are a health care or social service provider and would like to find out more about becoming a part of the AIDS Coalition as a Board Member, please contact Tom.

The AIDS Coalition is a non-profit organization and accepts contributions to provide education and support programs. If you would like to provide financial support to the AIDS Coalition, please send your check payable to the Clatsop County AIDS Coalition, Number 10 6th Street, Suite 209, Astoria, OR 97103.

Thank you for contacting Tom and supporting the AIDS Coalition and the regional network. I have enclosed a copy of the network's newsletter "Collaborations," which Tom is editor of.

Sincerely yours,

Earlean Wilson-Huey
